Thin Places Mystical Tour of Ireland - 2014

Mindie Burgoyne guides tour of mystical, sacred sites September 11-21, 2014

10 Days - 10 Counties - 26 Sites - 700 miles

Author and expert on mystical places, Mindie Burgoyne will guide travelers on an nine-day journey across Ireland's south-eastern region visiting "thin places" - places where the veil between this world and the eternal world is "thin." Visit sites in Counties: Meath, Kildare, Offaly, Tipperary, Cork, Kilkenny, Carlow, Wexford, Wicklow and Dublin.

Guests will overnight in Dublin, Kilkenny and Cashel with one special overnight stay in Barberstown Castle. On the tour guest will visit 7 Castles, 10 monastic sites and 8 sites associated with the ancient, druidic traditions. Sites include Castleruddery stone circle, the Hill of Tara, Newgrange, the Brown's Hill dolmen, the "Pipers Stones," Glendalough, the Rock of Cashel, Tintern Abbey, St. Brigid's Holy Well, Kilkenny Castle and Cahir Castle. Plus visit two of Ireland's most haunted castles - Leap Castle and Charleville Castle. Guests will also enjoy magnificent scenery in the Glen of Arhelow, the Wicklow Mountains and Hook Head Lighthouse (also said to be haunted).

The places we visited each embodied a unique dimension of Irish spirituality. The soulfulness of Ireland and its people was revealed as one of the country's great treasures. -Kathleen Sweeney, guest on Thin Places Tour 2012
