In this Thin Places tour of Ireland you will walk deep into the southwestern landscape, through some of the most mystical and ancient sites in western Europe.

You'll take your time immersed in ancient energies, the Irish mysticism, culture and heritage and trace the steps of the saints, scholars and mythological heroes.

You'll see all the elements of the Irish landscape – the Atlantic coast, the highest mountains, bogs, lush valleys, enchanted lakes, three islands and many vibrant towns and villages. You'll travel with a small group of people who will become your friends.
